

GRADUATE STUDENTS AND POST-DOCS

MS

- EUGENE SCHUPP, 1981. Interactions between ants and plants: Azteca protection of Cecropia.
- JOHN JULIANNA, 1984. Wing polymorphism and habitat quality in a delphacid planthopper Prokelesia
- DAWN WILSON, 1990. Activity patterns, home range sizes, and burrow usage of juvenile gopher tortoises, Gopherus polyphemus.
- PABLO DELIS, 1993. The influence of urbanization on herpetofaunal assemblages in western central Florida.
- PATRICIA HARTMANN, 1993. Demography of a population of the Florida scrub lizard (Sceloporus woodi) in a sand pine scrub on the Lake Wales Ridge of central Florida.
- KEVIN CONNOR, 1996. Homing behavior and orientation in the gopher tortoise, Gopherus polyphemus.
- ERIC SUTTON, 1996. A mark-recapture study of the sand skink, Neoseps reynoldsi, and a comparison of sand skink sampling methods.
- DANYEL SCHMUTZ, 1997. Microhabitat distribution of the Florida mouse, Podomys floridanus, on native upland sites and reclaimed mined land.
- WESLEY SHOCKLEY, 1997. A morphometric and skeletochronological analysis of Neoseps reynoldsi, the sand skink.
- ALEXANDRA COLLAZOS, 1998. Microhabitat selection in Neoseps reynoldsi, a Florida sand-swimming skink.
- KAREN HILL, 1999. Responses of released populations of the sand skink, Neoseps reynoldsi, to scrub habitat translocation in central Florida.
- GEORGE NAVRATIL, 1999. The effects of land management practices on the sand skink, Neoseps reynoldsi.
- STIG RAVDAL, 2000. The effects of silviculture and prescribed burning on herpetofauna in Florida sand-pine scrub.
- KRISTIE GIANOPULOS, 2001. Responses of the threatened sand skink (Neoseps reynoldsi) and other herpetofaunal species to controlled burning and clear cutting in the Florida scrub habitat
- KRISTEN PENNEY, 2001. Factors affecting translocation success and estimates of dispersal and movement of the sand skink, Neoseps reynoldsi, on restored scrub.
- TERRI STILSON, 2001. Movement patterns and food selection in juveniles of the gopher tortoise.
- KRISTIN CARUSO, 2002. Microhabitat preferences of the oak toad (Bufo quercicus) and explanations for the species' absence on reclaimed phosphate-mined lands.
- CAROLYN MEYER, 2002. Responses of environmental variables to land management practices in Florida scrub habitat and restoration efforts in former scrub habitat.
- KATHLEEN BARRETT, 2003. Microhabitat preferences of Eumeces inexpectatus, the southeastern five-lined skink: Explanations for its rarity on reclaimed phosphate-mined lands.
- JAMIE COLSON-MOON, 2003. Reproductive characteristics, multiple paternity, and mating system in a central Florida population of the gopher tortoise, Gopherus polyphemus.
- SHANNON GONZALEZ, 2004. Biological indicators of wetland health: Comparing qualitative and quantitative measures with anuran measures.

SUSANNAH RIEDL, 2006. The effects of translocation on movements, reproductive activity, and body condition of resident and translocated gopher tortoises (Gopherus polyphemus) in Central Florida.

NEJMA PIAGENTINI, 2006. The science and policy that compels the wetland mitigation of phosphate-mined lands.

KATHERINE BASIOTIS, 2007. The effects of invasive cogongrass (Imperata cylindrica) on the threatened gopher tortoise (Gopherus polyphemus).

NEAL HALSTEAD, 2007. Long term effects of prescribed fire on reptile and amphibian communities in a Florida sandhill habitat.

IRMGARD LUKANIK, 2007. An evaluation of movement patterns and effects of habitat patch size on the demography of the Florida mouse (Peromyscus floridanus).

KRISTAN ROBBINS, 2007. Spatially-explicit habitat suitability analysis of juvenile gopher tortoises (Gopherus polyphemus)

PhD

EDWARD PROFFITT, 1983. The influences of cumulative area, patch size, and frequency of disturbance on marine infaunal community structure.

SHANNON BROS, 1985. The role of barnacles in regulating initial recruitment to a fouling community in Tampa Bay, Florida.

BRIAN WITZ, 1994. The foraging behavior and physiological ecology of Cnemidophorus sexlineatus (Squamata: Teiidae) in a Florida sandhill habitat.

DAWN WILSON, 1996. Nesting ecology of the striped mud turtle, Kinosternon baurii, in a central Florida population.

PABLO DELIS, 2001. Hyla gratiosa and H. femoralis (Anura: Hylidae) in west central Florida: A comparative study of rarity and commonness.

CHERIE KELLER, 2005. Assessment of resource selection using remote sensing and GIS for two vertebrates: The gopher tortoise and the North Atlantic right whale.

BRIAN HALSTEAD, 2008. Predator behavior and prey demography in patchy habitats.

POST-DOCS

ALESSANDRO CATENAZZI (Ph.d., Florida International)

ROBERT KLUSON (Ph.d., University of California Santa Cruz)

ROBIN MOORE (Phd, Durrell Institute)
